EVENT DETAILS

Date: Thursday, March 21, 2013

Location: DiMeo Schneider & Associates, L.L.C.
500 W. Madison Street, Suite 1700
Chicago, IL

Speaker: Joan K. Moore

Cost: $40

Time: 5:30 to 7:30 pm

Food and drinks provided

Sweaty palms. Shortness of breath. Dry mouth. Dizziness. Rapid heart rate. (No this is not a pharmaceutical commercial!)

Come hear Joan K. Moore, Distinguished Toastmaster and District Governor, explain how Toastmasters can help.

Eliminate those anxiety symptoms and make you a sparkling communicator! Joan will provide information on her journey through Toastmasters, as well as Toastmasters communication and leadership tracks and public speaking tips.

Joan K. Moore is a Supervisory Investigator at the U.S. Attorney's Office in Chicago, Illinois where she helps investigate and prosecute fraud in all Federal government programs. Moore is also a Senior Professor at Keller Graduate School of Management. Her resume and accomplishments are amazing and she is the District Governor for District 30 Toastmasters in the Chicagoland area where she is responsible for directly overseeing 226 Toastmasters clubs and managing the district's day-to-day operations, finances, and human resources.

Don't sweat it. Come and have some fun!
