EVENT DETAILS

Michelle Reisdorf is a Regional Vice President with Robert Half, a recognized leader in professional staffing and consulting services. With nearly 24 years in the staffing industry, Michelle brings a wealth of experience to executives, professionals, business owners and other clients in need of staffing assistance. Learn how to best navigate your career during this time of continuous industry disruptions, as she shares insights on what fast growing companies in the Chicagoland market are looking for and the best way to market yourself for those opportunities.

The event will also feature an active Resume Workshop, where attendees will have the opportunity to hear what other hiring managers look for while selecting a candidate as well as what top recruiters have seen be the most successful tactics when it comes to standing out amongst your competition. They'll touch on catering a resume to a specific posting & interview prep questions, as well as providing one-on-one resume reviewing/revising.

Lastly, there will be photographer on site to provide free professional headshots for anyone interested!
